We are going to talk about

What is a Hate Crime?

- How can you report it?
- Where can you go for help?

- How does it feel to be a victim of Hate Crime?

What is a Hate Crime?

Hate crime is when someone does a crime to another person, because of who they think they are.

It can also include mate crime - this is when someone a person knows takes advantage of their friendship to do something against the law.

What is a Hate Crime?

Types of hate crime:

Disability (physical or learning disability)

Sexual orientation (if someone is straight, gay, lesbian or bisexual)

Nationality or race

Gender (if someone is a man, woman or transgender)

Religion

Examples of Learning Disability Hate Crime

Bullying for example verbal abuse - saying bad things to someone about their Learning Disability for example "spastic" or "retard"

Cuckooing – when someone uses your home to do criminal activity for example drugs, storing stolen goods or prostitution

Sexual assault (forcing someone to have sex or do something sexual)

Mate crime - for example someone making friends with a person with a learning disability so they can steal their money

Physical abuse by a carer

Recognising Hate Crime

How can you tell if something is a crime or a hate crime?

The person needs to be committing a crime and also showing prejudice to the person because of their Learning Disability

BIG words

Prejudice:

Treating someone differently because of their opinion about them

Hate Crime film

This film was made by the Lewisham Speaking up team
It is based on real life stories from people we know at Lewisham Speaking up

When you are watching the film look out for:

- What crime has taken place?
- What happened that makes it a Hate Crime?
- What help does the victim need?
