

Fellowship Portfolio Role – General Practitioner Role Description

Job Title:	General Practitioner
Portfolio Area:	HM Prison Brixton
Pay Range:	Pro-rata reimbursement calculated at the Fellow’s actual salary cost
Location:	HMP Brixton, Jebb Avenue, London, SW2 5XF
Hours of Work:	One session (4 hours) per week
Responsible to:	Lead General Practitioner

HMP Brixton, a category C men’s resettlement prison, has a dedicated healthcare team who is passionate about helping the prison population – a socially excluded group with traditionally very poor outcomes – to develop lasting, positive health and wellbeing. We are proud of our track record in improving the long-term health of offenders and lowering the rates of emergency hospital admissions.

This is an exciting opportunity for a GP fellow to provide prison healthcare and work with a multi-disciplinary team to provide alcohol misuse support and tackle mental health issues. To express an interest for this portfolio role, please contact the Training Hub in Southwark: souccg.training@nhs.net

This is a 24-month fellowship position in line with the educational support offered by NHSE.

- Date of commencement: Immediate
- Date of review: At 6 months

Principal Duties & Responsibilities:

- Provide clinical assessments and diagnosis to patient’s requirements
- Manage the patient caseload in partnership with other practitioners to ensure quality outcomes for patients
- Provide appropriate care and services to patients in all type of health care needs
- Develop positive collaborative working relationships and play an active role in multidisciplinary discussions around complex case management
- Provide appropriate health promotion and preventative health care advice to all patients

Other General Responsibilities:

1. Mobility

The Fellow will be based at HMP Brixton, Jebb Avenue, London, SW2 5XF.

2. Confidentiality

You will have access to confidential information relating to clients. You are required to exercise due consideration in the way you use such information and should not act in any way, which might be prejudicial to the interests of the portfolio provider. If you are in any doubt regarding the use of information in the pursuit of your duties, you should seek advice from the lead general practitioner.

3. Information Governance

You must keep up to date with the requirements of Information Governance ensure that information you have access to is dealt with legally, securely, efficiently and effectively. You must appropriately manage all of the information you handle during the course of your contract making the information available for sharing in a controlled manner and subject to statutory requirements.

4. Equality and Diversity

You will be aware of and support the equality, diversity and rights of service users, carers and colleagues and be aware of and support equity of opportunity for all, appreciating and supporting the role of other professionals by:

- Acting in a way that recognises the importance of people's rights, interpreting them in a way that is consistent with practice procedures and policies, and current legislation.
- Respecting the privacy, dignity, needs and beliefs of patients, carers and colleagues.
- Behaving in a manner that is welcoming to and of the individual, is non-judgmental and respects their circumstances, feelings priorities and rights.

5. Health and Safety

You must be aware of the responsibility placed on you under the Health and Safety at Work Act (1974) to maintain a healthy and safe working environment for both staff and visitors.

6. Infection Control

You are responsible for protecting yourself and others against infection risks.

7. Acceptance of Gifts and Hospitality

The conduct of members in the public service should be scrupulously impartial and honest. In this context, any offers of gifts or hospitality should be discussed with the lead general practitioner.

